MONTALA

Presented by
THE
NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY
MONTEVALLO HIGH SCHOOL
Montevallo, Alabama
1960

Through the years the Bulldog has stood as a mascot and symbol for the students of M.H.S. In this volume we hope to present a record of some of the things our "pup" has seen and done as he has romped "victoriously" through the year.

The Staff

DEDICATION

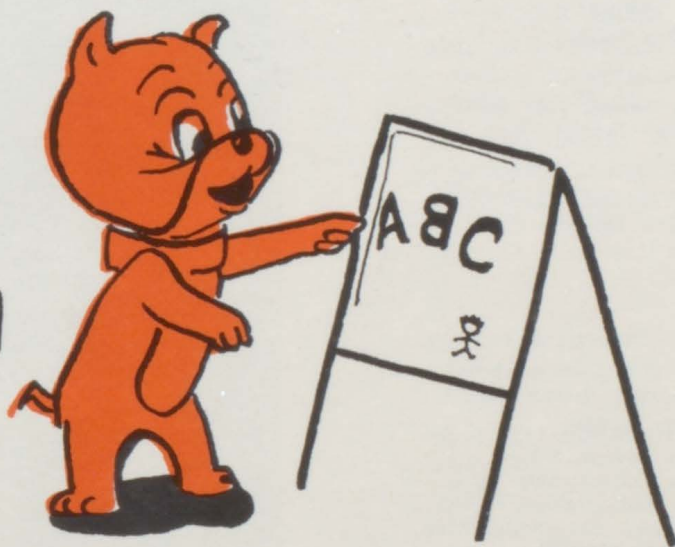

One of the most conscientious followers of our "pup" has been Miss Susie DeMent, senior high secretarial science teacher. Her interest and effort have helped lift the pup to the high position he now holds.

MONTALA STAFF

A remarkable feat indeed is when all of the members of the staff get together to "pose" for the yearbook. Pictured left to right are Betty Milstead, class editor; Gisela Molgedei, advertising manager; Janice Jones, business editor; Freddy Draper, organizations editor; Larry Smitherman, photographer; (standing) Cissie Orr, editor-in-chief; Larry Joe Pickett, sports editor; Mrs. Emily Pendleton, advisor; and Talmon Hill, activities editor.

JUNIORS

Life for Juniors is always busy and this year's class was no exception. Class sponsors Cratie Corbett and Bob Lightfoot saw to it that there was "never a dull moment" as life began in earnest with the fall magazine sale. Danny Thornton and Joan Crawford came in tops in this campaign which netted a goodly sum for the junior account. The spring of the year found all activities centered around the Prom where secret meetings and hidden decorations were the order of the day. Even with these big events, many juniors found time to participate in sports, belong to clubs, play in the band and lead cheers. Cheerleaders Phyllis Kyser, Linda Hill, and Janice Waters are shown along with Janice Jones and Doris Jones.

The Montevallo High School Band for 1959-1960—a well-balanced instrumentation of 68 members. In the football season the band performed at all games, presenting different half-time shows each week under the leadership of Glenda Gaddy, head majorette. The Swing Band, made up of 12 band members, began rehearsals during Christmas holidays and played for the annual Band Dance. A new feature this year was a Sunday afternoon concert at Palmer Hall, Feb. 28—considered one of the best given in recent years.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is an organization consisting of the representatives from each home-room with the exception of the Senior Class which has three. These representatives are chosen by popular vote of each section.

Officers are chosen each spring by popular vote of the student body. Present Council leaders are: Freddy Draper, President; Pete Givhan, Vice-President; Betty Milstead, Secretary; and Cissie Orr, Treasurer.

The Constitution of the Student Council calls for three appointive officers to be named by the President. Serving in these capacities are: Larry Smitherman, Parliamentarian; Forrest Brown, Chaplain; and Larry Joe Pickett, Fire Marshal.

Homecoming ceremonies, which include a parade and a dance, is an annual project of the student government. The Council also sponsors the Community Chest Drive. Through the efforts of the Council $199.78 was raised this year.

Both the French and English Departments have the use of a record player purchased by Council funds.

Montevallo's Council has done much toward trying to set up a student government in every school in Shelby County. Our school government was instrumental in forming a joint organ of all Councils in the county called "County Council".

Taking an active part in all conventions, our Council sent delegates to the National, Southern, and State meetings.

JUNIOR COUNCIL

The Junior Council is the junior high school student council organization. The group works to promote junior high activities and coordinates closely with the senior high council. Members of this organization are selected by popular vote from the various homeroom groups.

Officers are Gail Price, President; Carolyn Kyser, Vice President; Johnny Lovelady, Secretary; Marilyn Kyser, Treasurer; and Judy Pickett, Parliamentarian. Other members are Delilah Smith, Jane Robinson, Jerrie Crawford, Paul Glover, Charles McGehee, Ricky Zucco, Jerry Smitherman, Guy Milford, Johnny Starks, Sandra Scott, Beth Jeter, Tommy Wyatt, Nina Hollingsworth, Mike Garrett, Dale Youngblood, Eddie Southern, and Billy Scott.

Typing, cartooning, and sending exchange papers is an important aspect of newspaper work.

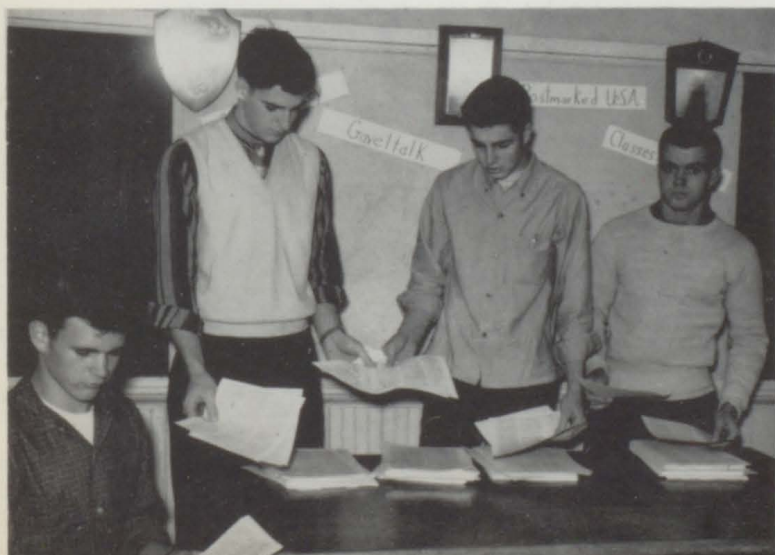

These boys see to it that the press keeps rolling every two weeks.

The editor-in-chief writes while surrounded by plaques won for first place in state competitions for three consecutive years.

Staff members staple the Spotlight together for distribution on alternate Friday mornings.

Spotlight delivered free to businessmen in town.

Clubs seem to call for parties. Christmas found most clubs having a "social". The Business Club enjoyed refreshments at their regular meeting. Some clubs donated presents to the needy instead of each other and each of the classes helped the seniors provide Christmas boxes for those in need.

HOMECOMING

Queen Cissie Orr reigned triumphantly over Homecoming festivities.

Last year's queen, Tommie Mowery, gives Cissie the crown.

Cheerleaders get to rest during parade!

A beautiful queen with a handsome escort, a sad-faced clown, and winning floats from the junior high school—all these made Homecoming '59 a success.

Who told you to interrupt?

My, but this is stimulating!

You have to really relax to "feel" the lines.

Play practice always plays an important part in the life of a senior. Here we see the first stages in the '60 production, "The Silver Whistle."

Girls' Staters Carol Lucas and Janice Jones.

Oratorical winners Don Lawley and Norfleete Day.

Spelling Bee contestants Emily Stansell, Susan Peters, Virginia Jenks, Martha Price, Paul Bailey, Ruth Grant, Patsy Fochtman, and Pat Boothe. Sponsor for this group is Mrs. Ruth Frederick.

Entering and winning contests and receiving awards seems to be a talent of many of our students.

With Head Majorette Glenda Gaddy in the lead, all band members say, "I Love a Parade!"

Good Citizenship Girl Cissie Orr gets some able assistance from Larry Joe Pickett.

Staging crew sees that everything is well done in preparation for the play.
